(meet at ark)

Alleluia! Christ is Risen.

1But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. 2They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3but when they went in, they did not find the body. 4While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. 5The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. 6Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, 7that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." 8Then they remembered his words, 9and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. 10Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. 11But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. 12But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

~Luke 24:1-12

The resurrection accounts in the gospels are full of theatrical elements enhanced by our knowledge of the story's end. We recognize Jesus and know that the angels' resurrection message is true even when the disciples do not. In Luke's account, the women find the tomb empty, are "terrified," then are told by two men in "dazzling clothes" that their Lord "has risen." Sometimes Christ's light is dazzlingly obvious and sometimes it seems a little confusing. It can be helpful at times to set aside our knowledge of the end of the story to remember the unexpectedness of that first Easter morning. The risen Christ still meets us where we least expect him. Sometimes, we may not immediately recognize Jesus' presence, but if we take a moment to look around, then we realize we see him everywhere in our midst.

We have heard about Christ's dazzling light in people's lives throughout the season of Lent. From our midweek speakers, we have continually heard about Christ's presence in their lives in big and small ways ... and how, sometimes, it took them a little while to realize the light really was Jesus working in their lives. It's made us stop and think throughout the month where we see Jesus in interesting places, perhaps where we aren't always expecting him.

We've seen Jesus in hand sanitizer. Keeping ourselves and one another healthy is an act of love for ourselves and others. Having hand sanitizer allows us the opportunity to practice that love as we continue to gather anew in Christian community to share in worship, coffee and fellowship, and relationship with one another.

We've seen Jesus in plastic bags. Throughout Lent, thousands of plastic zip bags were gifted to support Angels & Sparrows Community Table. Having those supplies handy, allows the organization to focus on preparing nutritious meals for those in need of their daily bread.

We've seen Jesus in introductions. With two services, an extended pandemic, and a re-locating working community, saying "Hello, my name is ____" is an act of hospitality in helping all feel welcome as they enter into an intentional time of worship living in the promise of Christ's life, death, and resurrection.

We've seen Jesus in softball games. We live in the gift of creation with others enjoying camaraderie, fun, and a common bond who is at the center of what brings us together. In support, cheers, and concern for our own team and the other, we give thanks that Jesus introduces us to others in fun ways who are living out the kingdom here on earth.

Evidently expecting to find Jesus' corpse, some of Jesus' female followers go to the tomb with embalming spices. After a perplexing encounter with the empty tomb and angelic visitors, the women become the first to proclaim the amazing news of resurrection. In Jesus' resurrection, it may not be immediately clear to us where Jesus is, but if we look closely, we will recognize Jesus' presence in interesting places.

In hand sanitizer and ziplocks, in introductions and welcomes, in big hits and catches, in joy and in sadness, in strength and in weakness, in hope and in fear ... Christ comes among us in and through so many things, turning our work into worship, our wailing into dancing, and our mourning into rejoicing. Christ's light shines! Alleluia! Christ is risen! Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Michael & Pastor Lisa

From the Finance Team

In February offerings came in at $35,557. YTD our financial gifts are at $327,130, which is 6% behind Budget. Our operating results are being bolstered by solid performance from the Preschool (registration for summer camps and the next school year are going strong). Expense items of interest: We had a broken pipe near the Ark, which led to a higher utility bill and cost of repair. Also, our electricity bill was higher again due to cold weather usage. This is typical at this time of year. The church van needed to be towed to have a dead battery replaced. It also required the annual inspection and registration. Finally, we had an annual inspection and maintenance of our Fire/Security system. Additionally, we paid for the installation of artificial turf in the Preschool area (covered by the Capital/Emergency account), new gutters, and removal of sick trees (covered by Prior Year IN funds). YTD we still show an Operating Surplus of $7,893. ~Madalyn Wilkinson, Director of Finance.
